

TRAVEL AND TRANSPORTATION

Wheaton is easily reached by all means of transportation: car, train, bus or airline. For travelers who are driving, directions are posted on the Wheaton College website at www.wheaton.edu/visit/maps.html.

Amtrak trains deliver passengers to Chicago at Union Station. To continue by train to Wheaton, passengers must transfer to the Metra line at the Ogilvie Transportation Center, approximately 1-1/2 blocks from Union Station.

By Train

Commuter rail information and prices are available from Metra passenger Services at 312-322-6777, or the Travel Information Center at 708-836-7000. Additional information is available on their website at www.metrarail.com. Guests traveling to Wheaton by train should disembark at the College Avenue Station, approximately four blocks east of the campus.

By Air or Bus

Ground transportation from either O'Hare or Midway is easily accessible. The Greyhound and Trailways bus depots are located approximately eight blocks from the Ogilvie Transportation Center where guests can board the train to Wheaton. Bus service is not available directly to Wheaton. Guests arriving on campus in a taxi or limo must know the building, cross streets, or designated drop-off point on campus.

Van and Bus Rental

Illinois state law does not allow campus vehicles to be rented to outside groups. If you need shuttle or ground transportation service for your guests while on campus, the following local bus companies can serve your needs.
